

Let's talk about people with disabilities on TV

Come to a talk about people with disabilities on TV.

We want to know how we can make TV and movies more inclusive for people with disabilities.

The talk is on Tuesday November 26 from 7pm to 8.30 AEDT on Zoom.

The Disability Dialogue is having this talk.

The Disability Dialogue is a group of people with disabilities and others who talk about things they care about and want to make better.

We will also share important news for people with disability.

Then we will talk about what we learned from our Disability Discovery Project survey.

The Disability Discovery Project survey asked people with disabilities what supports they wanted to make their lives better.

We will share what people said.
