

Invitation from the Disability Dialogue:

High school, university and TAFE for young people with disability

The Disability Dialogue wants you to come to a talk.

The Disability Dialogue is a group of people who come together to talk about important things for people with disability.

The talk is about education for young people with disability who are in high school, university or TAFE.

Young people with disability can have a hard time with high school, university or TAFE because the schools don't have what people with disability need to do their best.

We will talk about what makes education hard for people with disability.

We will also talk about what helps young people with disability have a good experience at school.

The talk is on Wednesday 25th February.

The time of the talk is

- 1.00 pm – 2.30 pm AEDT (NSW, VIC, ACT, TAS)
- 12.30 pm – 2.00pm (SA)
- 12.00 pm – 1.30 pm (QLD)
- 11.30 am – 1.00 pm (NT)
- 10.00 am – 11.30am (WA).

The talk is online on Zoom.

This talk is for

- People with disability
- Their families
- Support people
- Service providers
- People who care about people with disability.

If you would like to come to the talk please register at <https://disabilitydialogue.com.au/events/save-the-date-for-the-february-open-dialogue/>

After registering there is a survey which asks a few questions about what you think is important for students to do well in school.

The survey is in Easy Read.

You do not have to fill out the survey if you do not want to.

We will send you the Zoom link for the talk in an email after you register.

We will send you the link again the day before the talk.

If you have any questions about the talk please
