

Invitation from the Disability Dialogue: Art and stories from people with disability

The Disability Dialogue wants you to come to a talk.

The Disability Dialogue is a group of people who come together to talk about important things for people with disability.

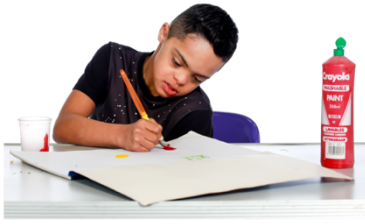

This talk is about art and telling stories.

People with disability use art to:

- Tell stories
- Show who they are
- Connect with other people.

We will talk about what helps people with disability make art.

We will also talk about how people with disability use art to:

- Speak up for themselves
- Celebrate the disability community.

The talk is on Wednesday 27 May 2026.

The time of the talk is

- 1:00pm-2:30pm (NSW, VIC, ACT, TAS, QLD)
- 12:30pm-2:00pm (SA, NT)
- 11:00am-12:30pm (WA).

The talk is online on Zoom.

This talk is for:

- People with disability
- Their families
- Support people
- Service providers
- People who care about people with disability.

If you would like to come to the talk please register at <https://disabilitydialogue.com.au/events/may-open-dialogue/>

After registering there is a survey which asks you a few questions about your experiences with art and creativity.

The survey is in Easy Read.

You do not have to fill out the survey if you do not want to.

We will send you the Zoom link for the talk in an email after you register.

We will send you the link again the day before the talk.
